The Big Berg – Large Scale Art

The TUNNEL

The TUNNEL is a one way trip to another side. A series of strange, 4m tall cosmic structures create a tunnel of magical light over 30m long. Pilots use an interactive device to manipulate the array, creating an infinite number of patterns of light and sound guiding your path.

Apothecary 2.1

Apothecarians will be serving elixirs to invigorate your body and soothe your soul. Look for us everywhere, roaming the Fraya in our steampunk, penny farthing mobile bar. A glorious, fire breathing clusterf@ck of steel, glass, and wood.

A Look Back – A Historical Timeline of Freezer Burn

We be old! Come visit the historical timeline of Freezer Burn & leave some swag behind to contribute to the growing festival record.

Illuminata

Pillars of light stand sentient in the dark waiting to show you the way. Some with shape inspiration reflected by Burning Man's 10 principles, others with exciting geometry and creative shapes. Walk through, sit under and be transported by the light.

Luminocity

Whether to illuminate, ignite, enlighten, or stimulate, light not only makes the world around us visible; light makes it shine. It can change our perception of our surroundings and the passing of time or tease our creativity with shadows and leave some mysteries unseen. It can cast a beacon of hope in dark places, burning bright for all to see.

On The Wings of a Dream

A majestic rose rising up from the base of flame and ash.

The Big Berg – Large Scale Art

Harmonic Citadel

Harmonic Citadel is slightly reminiscent of the Fortress of Solitude from the Superman comics – when left alone it will subtly shift and change, but when it senses sound and motion it will adapt and change to reflect the environment. Come stare into the crystals and see what they share with you!

Peace Under Pressure

"Peace Under Pressure" is a sculpture of a raging ball of fire with a woman sitting in the middle in peaceful mediation.

This work is intended as a reminder that as the world burns around us we have the option of sitting peacefully in the flames, and not reacting.

The Yellow Dubmarine

The Yellow Dubmarine will take you to unfathomable depths of excitement. This mobile stage and bar will have you dancing, drinking, and diving below sea level as you get lost in the infinity mirrors. Don't miss the Ragga Jungle Hot Box (18+).

Pheonix Rising

I lost my brother during the start of the pandemic and all normal ways of grieving were not available and we had to find non traditional ways to honour his passing. Along with his family we built a pheonix on his property to honour his life and his passing. I would like to recreate the Pheonix Rising sculpture for all those precious people and moments we have lost during the pandemic and celebrate coming together again.
